

After Inventory Clearing Sale!

We have finished taking stock and find we have too many goods on hand, so we are going to give the buying public one of the greatest bargain sales ever offered them. This is no pretense, but an actual fact.

Overcoats It was noticeable after taking our inventory that our stock of Overcoats was in excess of the demand, on account of the very open winter. To make them move we have slashed the prices below the profit mark. In fact, the prices, considering the values, will astonish you. A sight is all that is needed to make them go. Come early and get the choicest.

CORRESPONDENCE

Westville Waits.

The family of Ed Gordon are recovering from la grippe.

Mrs. Wm. Laird has been quite ill with la grippe, but is now able to be out again.

Mrs. J. W. Hedrick is very sick at this writing. Dr. W. D. West of Mendon is attending her.

Dr. J. R. Gaines of Musselfork was called to attend Geo. D. Hains, who was ill with a complication of diseases last week.

J. Hartman has moved his family to the tenant house of Robt. Green and will shortly move his saw-mill to Glenwood farm.

Wm. P. Davis went to Chicago Saturday with his cattle. He will return via Verdi, Iowa, and stop off for a few days' visit with his daughter, Mrs. H. O. Green, and family.

Sadness came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Couch last Thursday in a telegram, announcing the sudden death of their son, Isaac, who has for some time resided in the state of Idaho, where he has been teaching school. We have nothing to say in regard to the manner of his death or cause. Our sympathies are with his afflicted parents, sisters and brothers. His death having left in their hearts and minds an empty, aching void which never can be filled. His remains will be shipped to Marceline and brought to White Oak cemetery for interment. He has many friends and relatives residing here who mourn his untimely demise.

Lewis' Mill Laconics.

Rudolph Monnig has moved to his place near Forest Green, and Alvin Monnig has moved to where his brother, Rudolph, lived.

Louis Nordmeyer, a son of C. P. Nordmeyer, who has been in Las Vegas, N. M., working with a gang of carpenters for a railroad company, has been given a foremanship with 20 men under him.

Leo Filla has moved to Aholt, Missouri township. He says he caught all the fish in Doxey creek that were worth catching. He will now try the Missouri river and will have Ben Nellesen for a partner. So look out for some big fish stories as Ben is a fisherman from away back.

Chas. D. Nordmeyer, son of L. F. Nordmeyer, who has been going to school at Fayetteville, Ark., and graduated there last year, now has a large school down in Texas. He has two assistant teachers and there are 200 pupils in the school. Both Louis J. and Chas. D. Nordmeyer were born and reared in Chariton county and attended school in the Nordmeyer district which has been involved in so much litigation.

We see a great deal of talk in the newspapers about the $475,000 which the United States paid to the state of Missouri on a civil war claim. We also note that the state university at Columbia has put in a bid for this money, while Gov. Folk in his message to the legislature wants the amount placed to the state's credit and used for state purposes. We think it should be put into good roads fund and that the wise legislators should add enough to make it say, $1,000,000 and then invest it so as to bear interest, and let the various county courts of the state, when they have a bad piece of road to contend with, give $500 or $1,000 and the state give as much as each county. Thus we could get the bad roads put in order and the money would be more beneficial generally than if given to the state university.

Salisbury Squibblings.

Mrs. Geo. Ireland is confined to her room with la grippe.

"Uncle" John Cook is very ill at the home of Gilbert Cloyd.

Miss Lucy Vandeventer has returned from an extended visit to relatives in St. Louis.

Bert Windsor has resigned his clerkship at Brummall Bros., and returned to his home in Clifton Hill.

Hon. A. T. Dumm, wife and son, Tom, Jr., of Jefferson City attended the funeral of his father, J. M. Dumm, Sunday.

Mrs. N. J. Davidson and Miss Lizzie Young of Florida, Mo., arrived Sunday to visit the former's daughter, Mrs. A. W. Johnson.

Mrs. C. L. McOmber, accompanied by her son, Barton, arrived Monday night from La Cross, Wis., for a visit to her mother, Mrs. T. R. Philpott.

Miss Eliza Dougherty of Clark, Mo., is the guest of Miss Belle Richardson this week. She informs us that her brother, Lillburn, and family are en route to Inola, I. T., where they expect to locate.

A frame residence in the south part of town, owned by Mrs. Sleyster of Kansas City, and occupied by A. B. Chrane, was discovered to be on fire Tuesday evening at about 7 o'clock. The alarm was given and a crowd soon gathered, but the flames had gained such headway that both building and contents were soon in ashes. We did not learn whether either carried any insurance. A defective flue is supposed to have been the cause of the fire.

J. M. Dumm, one of our most respected citizens, died at his home in this city Friday morning at 11 o'clock after a lingering illness of that dread disease, consumption. He leaves a widow and three sons, A. T. Dumm of Jefferson City, Frank and Ray, together with a host of friends and relatives to mourn his death. Deceased was a faithful member of the Methodist church and will be sadly missed by pastor and members. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. H. H. Johnson, assisted by the other ministers of the town, from the Methodist church Sunday, after which the remains were taken to DeWitt, Mo., his former home, for interment. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved.

SUMNER SQUIBS.

Woodford Thorne visited his best girl at Huntsville Sunday.

J. W. Dameron and wife of Moberly were guests of P. L. Bozarth and wife of this place over Sunday.

Claude Wilhoit and wife and Miss Mamie Hall of Hale attended the entertainment here Saturday night.

Ozias Waugh and Jesse Myers left Tuesday for Oklahoma. Zack will work at his trade and Jesse will seek a homestead.

Lawyer House left here Monday for a tour through Kansas. If he likes the country as well as he used to he expects to buy it.

The Modern Woodmen of this place had a big time here Tuesday night with their big supper and ball. They are aiming to make enough to buy new uniforms for their Forester team.

A petition has been circulated here this week asking the circuit judge to parole Joe Moore, who is serving a year's sentence in the Linn county jail for the shooting of George Denbo on the night of the Laclede fair last fall.

Miss Grace Foster, formerly of this place, but who has been living with her parents in Kansas City for several years, was married to J. E. Hurley of Jefferson City one day last week, the ceremony being performed at the residence of the bride's parents.

The Gene Field memorial entertainment at the Pearl Saturday night was a complete success. The weather was very bad, but the house was filled to its utmost capacity. The entertainment itself was the best of its character your correspondent ever had the pleasure of attending. Every number on the program was worthy of mention, all were so good, indeed, that it would be hard to say which was the best.

The protracted-meeting at the M. E. church is still on with a fine attendance and a strong interest. Rev. Scarborough is a strong and a convincing speaker. His sermons are calculated to move the minds and consciences of his hearers rather than to appeal to their emotions. Should he not have a single convert at this meeting he will have done a grand work, for he has set men and women to thinking and his work will surely bear good fruit.

Some of our citizens are "seeing things" of late. The other night one of our young business men met a female on the depot platform and spoke to her when she vanished in a thin mist. Another man and his wife were on the way to the entertainment Saturday night when the citizen saw a man walking just in front of them. He asked his wife who it was, and when his better half assured him that there was no one there his hair stood up so straight that it almost pushed his hat off.

P. L. Bozarth has bought out all the other poultry dealers in Sumner and will go into the business on an extensive scale. He will erect a big poultry-packing house in the railroad yards where he expects to handle a large portion of the poultry from all the towns up and down the two railroads that cross at this place. This promises to be one of the best enterprises for the town that has ever located here. Mr. Bozarth is a hustler from Husterville himself and has secured the services of Harry Smart as his assistant, and Harry can go some, too.

Corn Wanted.

We want 50,000 bushels of corn, for which we will pay the highest market price delivered at Keytesville station.
